Cinematographer

Based in Los Angeles, Paola Trulin is an award winning cinematographer.

Paola grew up in Tijuana, Mexico where her love for film began. She went on to study Fine Art in Florence, Italy and continued her studies with a photography program in Madrid, Spain. She later attended The Academy of Art University in San Francisco, CA where she developed her craft and discipline of shooting on film and graduated with a BFA in Cinematography.

Traveling the world and her art background has given her a meticulous eye for composition and lighting. This along with her upbringing, has strongly influenced her cinematic aesthetic.
