DIRECTOR

A creator, he is equally proficient as a producer, director and creative. With a snowboarding and mountain climbing background, he gravitates towards action sports. He conceptualized, shot and produced eBay's long-form auto content Between Two Rides and Modathon, produced and directed a cinematic documentary on sprint cars for Monster's NOS Energy drink (available on Amazon Prime), and was awarded for his Life by the Horns Snapchat film on bull riding.

Trevor's industry-celebrated 'Please Don't Buy Mixwell' award winning spot which he produced and directed, illustrates his deft touch translates seamlessly from adrenaline, to humor and emotion.
